Section 6.03 Further Assistance. At any time or from time to time after the Effective Time, the parties hereto agree to cooperate with each other, and at the request of the Company or any other party, to execute and deliver any further instruments or documents and to take all such further action as the Company or such other party may reasonably request in order to evidence or effectuate the provisions of this Agreement and to otherwise carry out the intent of the parties hereunder.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 6.16(a), the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that irreparable harm may occur for which money damages would not be an adequate remedy in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to emergency, provisional and permanent injunctive relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement. Each party hereby waives (i) any defense specific to the remedy of specific performance, including the defense that a remedy at law would be adequate, and (ii) any requirement under any law to post a bond or other security as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.
